

The Department of Educational Equity in conjunction with the Fine Arts and Dance Curriculum Department invites Granite School District K-12 students to participate in the:

STANDING FOR JUSTICE

2017-2018 CESAR CHAVEZ VISUAL AND LANGUAGE ARTS COMPETITION

Cesar Chavez worked hard for social change to support the rights of migrant farm workers. Like Cesar Chavez, there are many others who fight for social justice. Social justice includes equal access to liberties, civil rights, and opportunities for all.

Entries are due by
September 22, 2017
